Peter Schweitzer,

In 2019, our Desert Caballeros Western Museum celebrated the 50th anniversary of the opening of its doors and I am pleased to report it has never been in better shape. Attendance and public events participation were robust, there's a phenomenal group of dedicated volunteers who support the Museum in countless ways, the fiscal year ended with another healthy surplus, and Cowgirl Up! and the heART of the West Gala both set records for donations and art sales.

People are still talking about the John Coleman Bronze and Beyond exhibition we hosted this year. Our first Adjunct Curator of History, Dr. Eduardo Pagán from Arizona State University, has given a number of very well-received public programs and guided the effort to produce our 50 Years/50 Favorites exhibition.

In April I made the decision to step aside as chairman of the Board of Trustees because after six years I felt it was time to pass the baton to a terrific young leader, Jason Rovey. Over the past ten years, the Museum emerged from the Great Recession, conducted a very successful capital campaign led by then Board Chairman John Daub, and strategically managed its resources into the excellent position it is in today. I always have believed it is best to change leadership during a period of strength so the timing of my departure for all concerned was ideal.

All credit for any successes and accomplishments during my time as chairman goes to our hard-working group of volunteers, donors, staff and friends. I want to thank my fellow trustees for their confidence in me, the staff for their support and, above all, the smiling faces of our Museum guests who made it all worthwhile.

I will look back on my time as chairman with great fondness and will forever remain the Museum's greatest advocate.

Sincerely,
Peter Schweitzer
Chairman of the Board of Trustees
October 2013 – April 2019

FROM THE INCOMING CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Jason Rovey,
DCWM archives

It is my honor to have been chosen as the new chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Desert Caballeros Western Museum this past April. A heartfelt thank you is extended to outgoing Chairman Peter Schweitzer for his exceptional leadership and commitment to the Museum. His stewardship has ensured the Museum will be strong for years to come and is, in fact, poised for even greater things in the near future. I sincerely appreciate all trustee members of the executive committee (Sarah Goulard, Craig Keller, Kathleen Parrish and Peter Schweitzer) continuing to serve during this leadership transition. I am equally encouraged by the positive feedback received from our tremendous volunteer corps and staff.

During the summer we began a new initiative to collect and analyze data from our members and guests on their opinions and purchases. We will use this information to improve Museum experiences through our programs and offerings and to attract new members. Applying data analytics has great potential to improve many aspects of the Museum's mission so it will become a significant part of much of what we do.

Under the leadership of trustee Ken Beecham, we now host a monthly meeting at Wickenburg Ranch for their residents on various Museum topics. There is no question that Wickenburg Ranch is a big part of the future growth of our town and it is vital to establish a connection with residents who are interested in volunteering and contributing to our mission. The Las Señoras de Socorro Tour of Homes was a big success thanks to the tireless leadership of Pat Stewart. We are also seeing great improvements in facilities and activities at the Boyd Ranch which complement the Wickenburg Western lifestyle we all enjoy. Boyd Ranch is a great asset and we look forward to hosting even more events in the coming year.

Again, I want to thank the Board of Trustees for their confidence in selecting me as chairman. I look forward to an outstanding 2019-2020 season.

Sincerely,
Jason Rovey
Chairman of the Board of Trustees
April 2019 – Present

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Daniel M. Finley,

The Desert Caballeros Western Museum flourished this year because so many great donors and volunteers worked together to create one of America's best Western art and history museums. Their efforts were validated in September when True West Magazine ranked our Museum as the third best Western art museum in the entire country! That's heady stuff for a town of only 8,000 people.

The Museum accomplished much during the 2018-2019 year. Our signature exhibition and sale, Cowgirl Up!, set all-time records for art sales and money earned while recognizing 56 of the country's top Western women artists. A tip of the Stetson goes to chairperson Becky Rovey for leading the effort.

The heART of the West Gala also raised an unprecedented amount of money for the Museum's programs while recognizing famed Arizona artist John Coleman with our Lifetime Achievement Award. Gala chairperson Betty Watt was unstoppable in making the evening a success.

We commemorated the 50th anniversary of opening our doors with a number of special events and an exhibition highlighting our 50 favorite items in the collection. I want to thank law firm Gust Rosenfeld for their financial support of the exhibit.

Outgoing Board of Trustees Chairman Peter Schweitzer is to be saluted for his service to the Museum and the community. Much was accomplished during his tenure, including managing the finances into tip-top shape. We all look forward to the chairmanship of Jason Rovey.

Finally, the dedicated staff and welcoming volunteers deserve a big shout out because they are the ones who make the Museum the best it can be for the visitors. You are the guardians of the unparalleled history of the American West.

Sincerely,
Daniel M. Finley

RETAIL

Desert Caballeros Western Museum operated two retail venues during 2018-19.

The Museum Store at 21 North Frontier Street and Ranch Dressing Store, a Western lifestyle boutique at 18 North Tegner, both specialize in books, jewelry, Western themed items, permanent collection and exhibition-related merchandise.

In addition to selling merchandise, the stores host programs such as book signings and craft demonstrations throughout the year, extending the educational experience of our visitors and to support the costs of programming all year.

Desert Caballeros Western Museum is a proud member of the Museum Store Association professional organization which establishes best practices and ethical standards for the field.
